you will feel somewhere special...

Welcome

At the Customs House Country Inn you will feel you are somewhere special from the moment you arrive. The uncompromising level of service and heart felt welcome provides sanctuary in which to rest, dine or entertain.

Located in the heart of the Fermanagh Lakeland's is the Luxurious Customs House Country Inn, set in the award winning village of Belcoo overlooking Lough McNean.

Cuisine that excels

Relax in Style

If food is your thing a visit to the Customs House Country Inn will not disappoint. Our chef's philosophy is simple, cuisine that excels with the highest quality of locally sourced ingredients.

Only an experience at the Customs House Country Inn can help explain what words cannot, superb food and a service which emphasises the personal atmosphere of this family run business. In short we follow the French in their philosophy a marriage of fine food with fine wine.

You can choose to dine on our daily carvery or our evening Brasserie menu.

Expressed in elegance

The Bedrooms

The hallmark of our bedrooms is expressed in their elegance, luxury and simplicity. Our rooms allow you the personal space where you can unwind and seek refuge from a busy world. Our superior rooms have spectacular views over Lough McNea. All our rooms are en-suite and fully equipped with modern conveniences and refreshments. There is lift access to all floors.

We particularly welcome families and are fully accessible for the disabled or those with mobility needs
